A MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD OF SCHOOL

Last Friday, our instructional staff had a great time discussing the spiritual focus, academic goals, and planning for our upcoming re-accreditation. One of the items discussed was the challenge of balancing our athletics and academic programs to promote the holistic health and well-being of our students. Here are some practical ways our administrative team seeks to partner with our parents and students for their overall well-being:

- A maximum of two games can be scheduled for each sport in each week.
- Intentionally giving student athletes a portion of their Thanksgiving/Christmas break for rest, recuperation, and enjoyment.
- We have re-implemented 'no homework' Wednesdays for all grades.
- Ensuring we are implementing our guidelines regarding how much homework can be given for each subject daily.
- Students must receive a minimum of 4 days notice before a test.

The above-mentioned list is not the entirety of the things we are doing, but it hopefully demonstrates our deep concern for our students and families. Another instrumental group that our administration team is utilizing to help shape our school environment is our student leadership team. We'll discuss more about this team in next week's newsletter.

With gratitude,
Pastor Marcus
