A MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD OF SCHOOL

We are blessed to have so many incredible families at Trinity Christian School. Most of the time, our news and media focus on the 'bad news' in our community and world. I would like to take a few moments and highlight some good news.

Several of our TCS families have been featured in the Texarkana Gazette in recent weeks for positively contributing to our community. We are partnering with you to train the next generation to do this very thing...impact their community and world for Christ. You may read the full articles below. The next time you see these families, please take a moment to encourage them!

With gratitude,
Pastor Marcus

WARRIOR FAMILIES IN THE NEWS!

Fresh cuts at Christian Care Center

Salty Boutique opens

Co-owner Madeline Smith hangs a "Real Housewives of Texarkana" tote for display Wednesday at Salty Boutique and Books, 236 Richmond Ranch Road near Target in Texarkana, Texas. Salty sells apparel for men and women, as well as unisex clothing, jewelry and books for children and adults. Smith said the name for the store was inspired by her favorite Bible verse at Matthew 5:13. "This is something that God put on our hearts to do. I want this place to be a place for everyone," Smith said. Salty's grand opening will be from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 24. (Staff photo by
